bio-transformational nutrition

Code: X1006

AntioGENX™ is a powerful blend of herbs and other nutrients designed to help overcome the ravages of oxidation and free radicals in the body. Free radicals have been linked to a number of serious health challenges.

AntioGENX™ supports your body's natural defense by feeding the immune system. Many factors contribute to weakening the immune system such as: pollution, stress, poor diet, aging and other environmental factors.

Consistently taking Antio-GENX™ gives your body a tremendous advantage in maintaining health and vitality.

PRODUCT INFORMATION

Antio-GENX™ takes the guess work out of which antioxidants to take. Our experts carefully selected this complete blend of antioxidants to deliver a great product that gets results!

(A) Proprietary Blend: Powerful antioxidants like: Graviola, Curcumin, Beta-Glucan, Grape Seed Extract and Pine Bark Extract, are combined with Ellagic acid from Pomegranate, and Cat's Claw. Each of these ingredients is tremendous on their own but in our proprietary blend, they create a synergistic effect greatly enhancing the results.

(B) Essiac Tea Blend: Essiac Tea was developed by Canadian Nurse Rene Caisse in the 1900's to help strengthen the immune system of her patients. The Essiac Tea blend of herbs we use is a rich, natural source of vitamins and minerals, and each contains antioxidants which are known to protect against cell damage caused by free radicals.

(C) Mushroom Blend: Shiitake, Maitake, and Reishi mushrooms have been used for centuries in Asia. The healing and antioxidant properties contained in these edible mushrooms are legendary.
